

Constructive Sheaf Models and Choice Sequences

Thierry Coquand
University of Gothenburg

The goal of this talk is to explain some analogies between works in algebraic geometry (Zariski topos, étale topology, synthetic algebraic geometry) and works on model of choice sequences. In particular, we present an important duality principle, which holds in both setting, and which explains Brouwer's uniform continuity principle.