

A last generalisation

Hannes Diener

We have previously generalised a constructive proof of the Kreisel-Lacombe-Shoenfield theorem to a wide class of metric spaces by introducing the notion of a space being complete enough. In this talk we chart a way to generalise this result further to topological spaces, closing the gap to Spren's recursive version of the same result.