

Some old and new results about norm resolvent convergence

Olaf Post - University of Trier, Germany.

In this talk, we give an overview of norm resolvent convergence applied to Laplacians on varying spaces. We comment on different results how to implement the fact of varying spaces. We also illustrate the concepts in many concrete situations such as shrinking domains, manifolds with holes and handles and discrete graphs approximating metric spaces.