

Fractional eigenvalues

Peter Lindqvist

(University of Science and Technology, Trondheim, Norway)

We consider the minimization of a non-linear Rayleigh quotient containing the so-called Gagliardo p -norm. This leads to an interesting Euler-Lagrange equation, which is not a “local” one. Strange phenomena are present. The asymptotic case $p = \infty$ is challenging. -This is joint work with E. Lindgren.
ArXiv:1203.4130